

THE GREATER PALAIS ROYAL

A. LISNER Washington, D. C. G STREET

Latest Moment News

Not in the Morning Papers

The best news—of $1.00 garments at 69c. Of course there is a reason—they are "broken lots." While each little lot is a nuisance to us and to you, the bunching of them create a vast variety, and all sizes in one style or another. The prize Bargain Table—that monster table on first floor near elevator—will be filled to overflowing. Ready for you—tomorrow morning.

DIAMONDS

The Safest Investment

The diamonds in these rings, at the prices asked, create a safest investment. The purchase of one of them will be like so much money placed to your account in the bank—plus the satisfaction of an ornament to be proud of.

Prices $20, $27, $39, $42, $90, $98

The jewelry chief, a diamond expert of reputation, will personally wait upon visitors contemplating a purchase. That every purchaser will enthusiastically indorse this new department of the Greater Palais Royal is part of the advertising to be done. It will be effectually done tomorrow—with these Diamond Rings, values considered, at the lowest prices on record in Washington.

Your Confidence Invited—and the Reason Why

Your confidence is invited with an exact statement as to diamonds you purchase. Thus stones not absolutely perfect are sold apart from the others. Three such lots are here.

$25 Rings with Diamonds of size and brilliancy to be $75—but they are not pure white.

$36 Rings with Diamonds, looking worth to $100—but flaws exist.

$7.75 Rings with perfect Diamonds; full surface, but lacking depth.

Solid Gold Jewelry

The prices are so extraordinarily little that you may question our meaning of "solid gold." Please investigate—and learn that the words are used fairly and squarely. Don't laugh—when you read that some of the pieces are set with real diamonds. Of course they are only "chips"—but they are chips of genuine diamonds.
